NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

Michael Pickford

At the first of the year many people choose to do something that will positively affect their lives by cleaning out something bad. Perhaps there some cleaning out we need to do in our own lives.

Heart. Our heart often determines our actions. Jesus said "For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lewdness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness" (Mark 7:21-22). No wonder the Lord said "Blessed are the pure in heart..." (Matthew 5:8). We overcome wicked thoughts by taking control of our thoughts. We should take captive every one of our thoughts (2 Corinthians 10:5). We do this, not by trying intentionally to not think about bad things, but by busying our minds with good thoughts so the bad thoughts have no room to grow and ultimately manifest themselves in evil ways. Meditate on pure things (Philippians 4:8).

Home. There are many who need to do some house cleaning. I'm not speaking of picking up debris, dusting, or straightening out furniture. I'm speaking of purging out bitterness and unkind ways towards our spouses, children and parents. Many family woes can be solved through the application of one verse, "Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you" (Ephesians 4:32). We may also need to eliminate some unsavory TV programs, movies, music and video games. David said "I will walk within my house with a perfect heart. I will set nothing wicked before my eyes..." (Psalm 101:2-3).

Habits. Two of the most popular New Year's resolutions are to quit smoking and to lose weight. Both of these affect the well being of our bodies, and both involve a great amount of self control. While applied to fornication in the context, an overall theme is disclosed in 1 Corinthians 6:19-20 where Paul wrote, "Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own? For you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's." Self control is part of the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23). Peter includes self control as one of the attributes that must be added to our faith (2 Peter 1:5-11). 🔍

FIVE VIEWS OF MARK 16:16 (5)

Michael Pickford

The final view of Mark 16:16 would simply take the Lord's words for what they say, "He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned."

First, this statement clearly requires faith. One must believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Christ, the anointed one of God, His Son. Jesus said, "For if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sins" (John 8:24). When the Ethiopian Eunuch expressed his desire to be baptized, Philip told him, "If you believe with all your heart, you may." Philip said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God" (Acts 8:37).

Second, the Lord's statement in Mark 16:16 requires baptism for salvation. Many treat the statement as if Jesus was giving a multiple choice – Belief OR baptism. But the Lord clearly said Belief AND baptism. Just as one cannot be saved without faith in Christ, one cannot be saved without being baptized into Christ (See Galatians 3:26-27).

Peter later wrote, "There is also an antitype which now saves us—baptism..." (1 Peter 3:21). Baptism is essential for salvation.

Paul stipulated that salvation is found "In Christ Jesus" (2 Timothy 2:10). If salvation is "In Christ," then it follows that one must get into Christ in order to obtain salvation. How does one get into Christ? Paul gave the answer, "For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ" (Galatians 3:26-27).

Salvation is not by faith alone, nor is it through baptism alone. Salvation is granted to the one who, as the Lord stated, "Believes and is baptized." 🔍
