

AN OLD FOOL

Michael Pickford

With knowledge and experience that should come from many years in life, one would expect an older man (or woman) to be full of sound advice and solid encouragement. But surely the expression “Old fool” came about for a reason.

“The silver-haired head is a crown of glory, if it is found in the way of righteousness.” –Proverbs 16:31

An older man may have met with great financial success, yet still be an old fool if he is not following the ways of righteousness.

An older man may have been blessed with a wonderful family, with many children and grandchildren, and still be an old fool if he is not following the ways of righteousness.

An older man may be very wise in worldly knowledge; he may even serve as a respected professor in a prestigious school, yet he is still an old fool if he is not following after righteousness!

Obey the gospel and serve the Lord faithfully until you leave this world (Hebrews 5:8-9; Revelation 2:10). Don't be an old fool, be an old faithful! 🔍

PROCRASTINATION

Michael Pickford

To procrastinate is to postpone action. Procrastination has surely robbed thousands of hours of productive labor. But procrastination is most lethal in spiritual matters. Especially when considering obedience the Gospel.

Example. The Bible gives us a classic example of one who procrastinated. We read in Acts 24:22-27 of a man named Felix. Felix was interested in hearing Paul proclaim to him the message of Christ. Paul spoke to him about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, and he thought very carefully about these things. In fact, the thought of them made him tremble with fear! (vs. 25). One would think that this man would obey the Lord and become a faithful servant of Jesus right away. This was not the case. Sadly, after hearing and trembling, Felix responded, “Go away for now; when I have a convenient time I will call for you.” How sad! How tragic! Felix made a decision which affected His eternal destiny; and he made the wrong decision. He decided to put off obedience to the Gospel.

Exhortation. As soon as we hear and believe, and are mature enough to understand the ramifications of our sins, we must obey the Gospel! That is, we must repent of our sins (Acts 2:38), confess our faith in the Lord (Romans 10:9-10), and be baptized to have our sins washed away (Acts 22:16). The Bible exhorts us to do this promptly. “Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation” (2 Corinthians 6:2). The Philippian Jailor was baptized in the “same hour of the night” (Acts 16:33). The verse uses the word “Immediately.” We don't know when the Lord might return (1 Thessalonians 5:2).

Expiration. We live in a world where expiration dates are a big part of our lives. We have expiration dates on our milk, our bread, our medicines, etc. Most people see the need to use up what they have before it expires, or else they will have to incur a loss. Why can't people see this same need when it comes to their souls? This is infinitely more urgent. We are not given our expiration date. No one knows when they will die. The foolish man in Luke 12:13-21 was preparing for a long prosperous life. He had no idea his life would expire that very night! (See also James 4:13-17). Don't procrastinate, you may wait too late! 🔍
