FACING FEAR

Michael Pickford

Fear is an element of life we dislike. I'm not talking about the fear of snakes, tornadoes, etc. I'm speaking of the anticipation of those test results regarding our health, or of a drastic financial set-back, or of a loved one getting involved in a deadly accident, etc. This type of fear is connected with worry and if not kept in check can devastate our lives. We should face this fear with...

Christ. Those in Christ have an advantage over those on the outside in that they have God's promise of prayer. Peter wrote, "For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their prayers..." and John adds, "Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us" (1 Peter 3:12; 1 John 5:14). We don't always get the exact answer to prayer we desired, but we know a concerned and loving God hears us and no matter how He answers, we know He loves us deeply. We should live life with the attitude of, "If God is for us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8:31). Don't fear and worry, just live right and trust God, for "The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much" (James 5:16).

Courage. Christians who are serving God faithfully have every reason to face any fear with unrelenting courage. The famous quote says, "There's nothing to fear but fear itself." A better quote is, "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear...But he who fears has not been made perfect in love" (1 John 4:18). If we love God as we should we will have complete trust in Him, but fear and anxiety are the result of a lack of trust in God. So if we often find ourselves paralyzed with fear, we need to examine ourselves insofar as our love and trust in the Father. If we face fear with loving, trusting prayer we can eliminate the anxiety and replace it with indescribable peace, "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:6-7).

Comfort. In any situation this life presents, we can maintain comfort deep in our hearts because of the promise of eternal life. Think how comforting the words of the Lord, "Let not your heart be troubled... In My father's house are many mansions..." (John 14:1-2).

HALLOWED BE THY NAME

Michael Pickford

*“Oh, magnify the Lord with me, And let us exalt His name together.”
- Psalm 34:3*

I’ve often wondered how many times someone has prayed “Hallowed be Thy Name” when they had no clue what they meant by it. They were just simply repeating what the Lord said in the model prayer of Matthew 6:9-13. I freely confess that as a child I did this many times.

The Greek word for “Hallowed” carries with it the idea of, “To make holy,” but in two different senses. First, in a ceremonial sense, the New Testament uses the word to speak of sanctifying or purifying something. Among these would be sinners (1 Corinthians 6:11), disciples (John 17:17), the church, (Ephesians 5:26), and even food (1 Timothy 4:5).

“But,” you say, “God doesn’t need to be made holy or purified; He is holy and pure by nature.” That’s right, so the secondary usage of the word is intended in Matthew 6:9, that is, “To make holy” in the sense of veneration rather than the ceremonial sense. It is a term of adoration or worship. When we pray, “Hallowed be thy name,” we are praying that God will be recognized, respected and revered for what He is – Holy!

To pray “Hallowed be Thy name” is to magnify and praise God’s name, to laud and exalt His holiness. “I will bless the Lord at all times, His praise shall continually be in my mouth.” (Psalm 34:1). But 34:3 says, “Oh, magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.” This invites others to recognize and glorify God’s holiness. So, “Hallowed be Thy name” isn’t just an expression of my recognition of (and respect for) God’s awesomeness, it’s also a prayer that others will come to praise Him as well.
