

Pearls from Proverbs

By Michael Pickford

Envy

“Do not let your heart envy sinners, but be zealous for the fear of the Lord all the day.” -Proverbs 23:17

The green eyed monster of envy rears its head when we begin to begrudge the fact that worldly sinners often have nicer houses, better cars, and more success. Don't envy them! Instead, busy yourself in doing the work of the Lord; you'll find a sense of satisfaction and contentment that the rich sinner will never know.

Eternity

“For surely there is a hereafter, and your hope will not be cut off.” -Proverbs 23:18

The rich sinner possesses nice stuff in this world, but earthly treasures will burn up. Don't envy him, just busy yourself with laying up treasures in heaven – eternal treasures (Matthew 6:19-21). Focus on the “Hereafter” where your hope rests; and remember, the ones who are truly blessed are often not the ones who appear to be blessed.

Welcome to our services and thank you for visiting. If you have any questions about our beliefs or practices, please don't hesitate to ask.

THE WORD OF GOD

Michael Pickford

There are so many wonderful things to say about God's word! The word of God...

GUIDES ME. “Your word is a lamp to my feet And a light to my path” (Psalm 119:105). Guides, manuals, and directions abound in our society. Unfortunately, many disregard them, which often leads to improper and sometimes unsafe assembly of products. But how improper and unsafe to neglect the reading of God's guide – the Holy Bible! We should pray as the Psalmist, “For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me” (Psalm 31:3). Peter said to the Lord, “To whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life” (John 6:68). Some speak of other great religious leaders who gave great guidance. But if you go to Buddha's grave you'll find it occupied. If you go to Muhammad's grave you'll find it occupied. You'll find the Popes' graves occupied. It's the Lord Jesus Christ who defeated death and it is to His words we must go to have eternal life!

GUARDS ME. “Your word I have hidden in my heart, That I might not sin against You!” (Psalm 119:11). The armor of God that is supplied through Christ provides us the strength and power we need to “Stand against the wiles of the devil” (Ephesians 6:11). One piece of this armor is “The sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God” (Verse 17). Jesus wielded the word against Satan by responding to each temptation with “It is written” (Matthew 4:1-11). Hiding God's word in our hearts is crucial to winning the daily battles we face. If I'm tempted to lie, I've memorized Revelation 21:8 and it guards me. If I'm tempted to backbite or gossip, I've hidden Romans 1:29-30 in my heart and it guards me. If I'm tempted to watch a movie or TV program that uses sinful behavior to entertain people, I recall Psalm 101:3, “I will set nothing wicked before my eyes...” (Psalm 101:3), and it guards me!

GOADS ME. Each day as I read God's word I am reminded of another challenge. If I've gotten lazy or unconcerned, God's word goads me to be Zealous for good works (Titus 2:14). If I'm tempted to miss an assembly, God's word goads me to not forsake (Hebrews 10:25). The word of God isn't a book of suggestions; it's a Volume for victory! What has the word of God done for you today? 🔍

WHERE DO YOU FIND REFUGE?

Jesse Flowers

Throughout time people have found certain things in life that give them comfort and provide a sense of security. For some it is their nice homes with advanced security systems protecting them from any threat of danger. For others it is their jobs that pay well and help them live quite comfortably. Further, you will find those who identify their refuge as their stocks and mutual funds where they have invested their retirement nest egg. Yet, some folks would not hesitate to say it is in the company of their families and close friends that they find refuge. Where do you find refuge?

It is easy to site many examples from the Bible where the people of God sought refuge in the wrong things or people. For example, how often did Israel choose to seek refuge in the arms of false gods, or desire to return to Egypt for safety and protection?

“He will say: ‘Where are their gods, the rock in which they sought refuge? Who ate the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offering? Let them rise and help you, and be your refuge’” (Deuteronomy 32:37-38). “Look! You are trusting in the staff of this broken reed, Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him” (Isaiah 36:6).

People have not changed. Numerous individuals continue to place their trust and confidence in the gods of this land (Joshua 24:15). Such things as: material wealth (I Timothy 6:6-10, 17); the praise and approval of men (John 12:42-43); the wisdom of men (I Corinthians 2:4-5); the passing pleasures of sin (Hebrews 11:25) like drugs, alcohol, and sexual immorality. It is in such things that the world finds the refuge that they seek, but it always leaves them feeling unfulfilled, dissatisfied, and even miserable.

Friend, where do you find refuge for strength, comfort, and security? Is it in the aforementioned things or do you find it elsewhere? Children of God know that true refuge is not found in the temporary things of this life, but only in the eternal, which shall not pass away (2 Corinthians 4:18). Saints seek and find refuge in things far different than anything this world has to offer.

We find refuge in: brethren who sincerely care for our well-being (Romans 12:10); the power and comfort of prayer (Philippians 4:6); the inspired Word of God (2 Tim. 3:16-17); a Savior who continues to intercede on our behalf (I John 2:1); the hope and promise of heaven (Philippians 3:20). “The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms” (Deut. 33:27). What a splendid thought indeed! -
